

FAVOR OARE FOR SUPERIOR BENCH; WOMAN FOR SEAT

Oare May Succeed Klein; Mrs.
Anderson May Replace
Hunter on Ticket.

Appointment of candidates to fill vacancies on the republican ticket, caused by the death of the late Fred C. Klein and Arthur B. Hunter, will be made the last of this week or first of next, it was said Monday. The authority to fill such vacancies is delegated to the county chairman.

Sheppard Crumpacker, republican county chairman, declined to discuss the matter Monday morning, other than to say such appointments would in all probability be made some time next week.

Favor Oare.
Conjecture Monday morning among republican leaders as to the successor of Judge Klein on the republican ticket for Superior court No. 2 bench indicated that Lenn J. Oare had the inside track. He is one of the younger, aggressive attorneys at the bar and has long been active in republican circles, but has never been rewarded at the hands of his party, and for this reason those in a position to know, believe his chances were exceedingly bright.

Two other candidates are believed to be in the running for this office. They include A. N. Hildebrand, present judge pro tem of the Superior court and Ralph Feig. Each has certain factional followings in the republican party which are playing for their choice.

It was hinted Monday that the appointment of a man on the ticket to run for Superior court No. 2 judge would be made only after Gov. Warren T. McCray had designated the man who would fill the unexpired term. Gov. McCray's appointee will sit until Jan. 1, 1922, when the successful nominee of this fall's election qualifies.

Woman May Run.
It was impossible to learn of any aspirants to fill the vacancy on the ticket caused by death of Mr. Hunter who was a candidate for state senator. It was said in some quarters that should the judgeship selection come to South Bend that Mrs. Helen Anderson, of Mishawaka, might be named as a candidate for the state senate. Mrs. Anderson, who made the primary race last spring, was second to Mr. Hunter and finished only several hundred votes behind. However, should a Mishawaka lawyer be selected for the judgeship it was further indicated, a South Bend person would be placed on the ticket for the senatorship.

FIRST OFFENSE PROMPTED PLEA

Fine and Suspended Sentence
Given Rajewski for Liquor
Law Violation.

Pleading guilty to the charge of unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor, Max Rajewski, 2202 W. Division st., one of the trio of bar victims who had their places wrecked July 8, was given a suspended jail sentence of 120 days and a fine of $100 and costs upon his appearance before Judge DuComb in city court Monday. The case was continued from Saturday.

Anticipating the intention of the court to search the records for a former conviction, Rajewski's attorney declared that his client had never before been convicted by the incumbent judge. A report that Rajewski had a 90-day suspended sentence hanging over him was denied.

"If Rajewski had a previous suspended sentence he would not have pleaded guilty," said the attorney.

Miss Gordon First of Sex to Seek Admission to Practice Law Here

Maude Esther Gordon, a former deputy clerk, and for the past few years, stenographer and law clerk in the office of Isaac Kane Parks, Mishawaka, lawyer, has filed her petition in Superior court No. 2 for admission to the St. Joseph county bar. She presents three supporting affidavits of character signed by Mr. Parks, Clifford V. DuComb and Charles L. Metzger.

In her petition she sets out that she has been studying law for a number of years.

George Rarick Arrested and Charged With Theft After Watch is Recovered.

Charged with theft of a watch belonging to Joseph P. Ford, 1104 S. Main st., George Rarick, formerly of Columbia city, Ind., but recently rooming at S. Main st. address, is in the custody of the police. He will appear before City Judge DuComb for arraignment Tuesday to answer to a charge of grand larceny.

Rarick's arrest occurred Sunday evening. Officer Don Coe had been called to the rooming house, operated by W. H. Lewis, and was questioning roomers concerning Ford's missing watch when Rarick, overhearing the conversation, turned and fled down an alley in the rear of the house.

Overtaken, Rarick was put under arrest. A search revealed the watch where it had evidently been thrown by the fleeing Rarick to escape detection. Despite his suspicious actions, the prisoner denied the theft.

Rarick was held for questioning by members of the detective department, but is said to have no criminal record. Monday, Lewis and Ford signed affidavits against Rarick. The watch is valued at $55.

Chicago Industrial Writer

Robert Y. Kerr, of the editorial staff of the American Lumberman, a noted Chicago publication, stopped in South Bend Monday on a motor trip to the Atlantic coast. Mr. Kerr visited the office of the New Homes bureau, 223 S. Main st., and was much interested in the work of that organization.

He will return to Chicago early in August and contemplates writing an article about South Bend's expansion program, featuring the building program and the work of the New Homes bureau. Mr. Kerr stated that while he has visited many cities of the country during his expansion movements, he has never before known of an expansion program as complete and unique as that of South Bend.

How I Got Rid of Burning Feet

And Pains from Corns and Bunions Without Soaking, Powders, Plasters, Etc., After suffering Indescribable Foot Misery for 20 Years. Prof. P. T. McIntyre, well known world tourist and lecturer, says: "For years I was compelled to wear shoes two sizes too large, to be able to walk with any comfort at all. I tried soaking my feet in medicated baths, powders, plasters and foot-treatments galore, but the burning, callouses, and soreness refused to go, while the pains from corns and bunions determined to torture both mind and body, which upset my entire nervous system. One day, very fortunately, I met a lad from Egypt who gave me a little box of Gypsy Foot Relief, which he said was a secret from the desert. After using it a short time, the awful burning stopped, the callouses came off in chunks, leaving the skin of my feet clean and smooth, while the pains from corns and bunions seemed to disappear as if by magic. From that time, I said a joyful goodbye to over twenty years of indescribable foot misery. I would not take a hundred thousand dollars to again go through those years of agony. Now I feel like telling every foot sufferer to get a box of the wonderful Gypsy Foot Relief."

Note.—Gypsy Foot Relief, referred to by Mr. McIntyre, may be applied in a minute, without fuss or bother. Sure, quick relief comes three minutes later, or the makers give back the small amount you pay. It is sold in this city by Wet-tick's Cut Rate drug store, London Drug Co., Central Drug store, American drug store.

For centuries this has persisted and even today the solution is not forthcoming. Novels connected with these legends excite the curiosity of all readers, and are assured of an insistent sale. Music having in it the thrill, and pulsing of the broad, wind-swept desert, is compelling and stirs the senses. Racing equally in importance with these is the motion picture which has swept for its settings and which reflects the life and atmosphere of the country. Such a production is the "Eyes of the Mummy," Pola Negri's latest Paramount picture which starts today at the LaSalle.

It tells of a beautiful girl kept prisoner in an ancient tomb by a fanatical old man, and used to fascinate visitors by peering at them with mystic eyes from out of a mummy case. A weird love story follows through the tangled trail of hypnotism and offers to wonderful Pola Negri her first opportunity for the oriental dances in which she excels.

BLACKSTONE
South Bend picture patrons who are alive to "What's what on the screen" are anxiously awaiting Tom Meighan's appearance in his newest picture "The Bachelor Daddy," which will open at the Blackstone Wednesday. Tom Meighan is unique among screen stars. To our knowledge he has never yet figured in any of the sensational episodes that mark the lives of so many in the Hollywood colony. In his home life as on the screen he is the polished, likeable, extremely human gentleman. In "The Bachelor Daddy," Meighan cast as a wealthy bachelor, is found conducting five orphaned children across the continent in a pullman. The setting is ideal for the clever sort of comedy that Meighan and his little tots can handle so well. "It's likely to be classed as the best picture of the year," says Screen Opinions. Lovely Leatrice Joy, plays opposite the handsome Tom.

Today lovers of the beautiful and gorgeous, will have their final chance to see a picture that reveals in lavish settings, "Beauty's Worth," Marion Davies, sensational Cosmopolitan beauty is starred.
